McVeigh Global Meetings and Events Again Makes CMI 25

McVeigh Global Meetings and Events celebrates making MeetingsNet CMI 25 for the 13th consecutive year.

New York, NY, (September 5, 2019) – MeetingsNet, the leading digital magazine and website focused on the meetings and incentives industry, has named McVeigh Global Meetings and Events, LLC (MGME) to its 2019 CMI 25 list (<https://www.meetingsnet.com/>).

The CMI 25 list is the meeting industry's only all-inclusive report of the largest and most influential full-service meeting and incentive travel management companies, focused on the North America corporate market. Year after year, MeetingsNet is looked at to lead the meeting industry by providing engaging content for decision-makers planning meetings in the association conventions and expos, corporate meetings and events, and medical and pharmaceutical meetings sectors.

“Successful meetings management demands creativity, attention to detail, and top technology, and the CMI 25 companies have proven themselves to have the focus and experience needed to get the job done,” said MeetingsNet Content Director Sue Hatch. “The profiles of the CMI 25 include statistics on business volume, top customer markets, as well as company news, giving readers a sense of the focus, strengths, and size of these large third-parties.”

As a group, the companies on the 2019 CMI 25 list executed almost 150,000 corporate meetings and nearly 7,000 incentive travel programs in 2018, and together those events booked over 24 million room nights at hotels and resorts around the world.

Jeff Guberman, CEO of McVeigh Global Meetings and Events says, “We are proud to once again be included in the CMI 25. The credit goes to our amazing team for their hard work, dedication, and brilliance.”

The company's broad expertise and deep industry knowledge provides clients in various industries with event and meeting management services worldwide. “Thank you to our clients for trusting us to help them create deeper human connections with their attendees and solve their business challenges!” says Chief Operating Officer, Carvie Gillikin. McVeigh Global Meetings and Events was selected, among other companies, based on their number of corporate meeting and incentive travel programs and the total number of room nights booked throughout the year.
